

Paper Guidelines for the AFR Conference 2027

Thank you for contributing a paper to the 9th Architectural Finishes Research (AFR) Conference. Please read these guidelines carefully before preparing and submitting your manuscript.

Please refer to the timeline of the submission process on our homepage.

Submission

- Please submit your first draft and subsequent versions of your paper via the ConfTool-platform (www.conftool.com/afr2027).
- Maximum number of words: 4.300 (title, abstract, keywords, endnotes, references, image captions included)
- Language: English
- The publications can include up to 8 illustrations (colour or black and white photographs, diagrams, graphs)

Manuscript Structure

- Title
- Abstract (maximum 300 words)
- Keywords
- Introduction
- Main text
- Conclusions
- Acknowledgements
- References

Style Guide

- For information on citation style, image caption style, etc. please see the Archetype Publication Guidelines

Figures

- Maximum of eight figures.
- Figures should be of publication quality (see Archetype guidelines).
- Authors are responsible for obtaining permission for copyrighted material.

Should you have any further questions regarding the paper guidelines, please contact the conference team (AFRconference2027@akbild.ac.at).